Religious Education News

Sarah Nelson is the new Religious Education Coordinator this year. Her contact information is below.

Religious Education Registration Sheets are on the brown table by the waking room. Each family: please review your forms, make any changes, and return. There are also blank forms on the table for any new students.

Looking for Religious Education Teachers – If anyone is interested in being a full time, part time, or sub teacher for RE please contact Sarah Nelson. We are currently looking to fill one full-time role. If you are interested, but unable to commit to teaching every week, that position could be split between two people if that works better for them. We are always in need of subs and if any Confirmed students would like to be helpers, and work on volunteer hours, this is a great opportunity.
